Strathbogie Leadership Program 2025

SHIRE COUNCIL

Program Overview

The Community Leadership Program is open to local residents aged 18 and over who are interested in developing their leadership skills—no prior experience needed. Running from October to December 2025, the program brings together a small group of up to 20 participants for six in-person workshops. As the group progresses through the sessions together, they will build connections, gain new insights, and share meaningful experiences. The program concludes with a graduation event to reflect on the journey, celebrate achievements, and recognise personal growth.

Highlights

- Small group interactive workshops
- Graduation ceremony to celebrate your journey
- Shared learning experience with the same group throughout
- Explore new ideas and strategies to lead effectively in your community

Commitment

To get the most out of the program, participants are asked to attend all six workshops.
